my deare [dear]

in that Endeared [endeared] relation of Love & [and] kindnes [kindness] that hath [has] brought us together & [and] united us in that onenes [oneness] that makes us one where Love freely flows [are] thou [you] very neare [near] & [and] deare [dear] unto me I am still well tho [though] the place sickly & [and] hope to be with thee [you] the Latter one of [page damage: those?] next week & [and] sooner I do not expect it may be Longr [Longer] but I hope not my absence now so Long from thee [you] makes me Long to see thee [you] & [and] be with thee [you] this is the fourth Letter I have sent thee [you] but whether thou [you] has rech [reached] them or no I know not but I have not had one line from thee [you] but hope all is well my kind love to Ab [Abigail Pemberton] & [and] pris [Priscilla Pemberton] let Ab: [Abigail Pemberton] know I tooke [took] it unkindly from her shee [she] did not write to me by the Indian that Came down from pensberry [Pennsbury Manor, Pennsylvania] hither [here] to let me know how you were at home I do not now expectto heare [hear] from thee [you] untill [until] I see thee [you] I am in hast [haste] but remaine [remain] thyn [thine][yours] as above
